“ Joe was the biggest teddy bear in the whole world when I met him I had just started in the mowing industry and he scared the heck out of me here was this big tough guy and I was in his world little did I know he was about to become my best friend mentor and biggest fan joe pushed me to go faster he challenged me to use my mind and creativity and he knew what type of drive I had in me even when I didn't have it he adored his wife and children and lived his dogs and he could still mow circles around me but I could put stripe him
Most recently I introduced him to cold stone creamery in disbelief that he had never had it and that night was a buffet because he literally couldn't make up his mind he almost ordered the whole menu ! My condolences go out to his entire family and anyone who was close to him joe you literally were one in a million and I luff you enough dude you will be missed

“ Joe you were loved by so so many. This tragedy left so many unspoken words and so my broken hearts. You were one of the kindest, friendliest , loving person. Your laughter would make everyday a better day. Im gonna miss you so much as well as so many others. Please watch over us down here and give Stevie Ray a big huge hug from me and tell him i love him and miss him too. And if you could somehow send a sign to my sister Alice and let her know that youre ok. Shes not handling this very well. I love you bub. Until we meet again. R.I.P

“ My heart hurts something awful..Big Joe I loved you dearly you was one of the greatest guys ive ever known. You will be sadly missed...ill never forget last year bout this time when i got stranded on side the road coming home from work my battery died and u came to save the day by bringing another battery only for it to be dead too...neither one of us had jumper cables so u asked if i had an old cell phone charger..and of course i did...u took it and jumped my battery with it..i thought u qere crazy and doubted u..after u done it i called u mcguyver lol..we sure had some fun times and lots of good memories that ill forever cherish... now Jay has a Good man with him to qatch over Marlee and I..i was so proud of you and your sobriety...RIP FRIEND...UNTIL I SEE YOU AGAIN...RIDE ON!! LOVE YOU AND MISS U SO MUCH ALREADY..PRAYER FOR HIS WIFE SANDRA HIS KIDS AND ALL HIS FAMILY AND FRIENDS...
