“ Uncle Ricky, we really wish could be there today. You will forever be in our hearts. Thank you for all the fun times and making us laugh. Even recently when you told my kids to go get a big ice cream, and that it was from you. We got those ice creams and said a prayer for you. You were a legend that will never be forgotten. R.I.P. “ Ricky never met a stranger I remember the first time we met. It was in the alley behind his childhood home it was like I'd known him forever. So many good memories come rushing back but the day he became a dad is my favorite he was so proud....come look at my boy he said. Ricky was so proud of Lee.

“ I remember when Ricky wanted to hang out with us one weekend. We met up on a Saturday night and started our regular Saturday night run. We were deep in the hood and Rick was right there with us. People were coming up to Rick shaking his hand, patting him on the back, shoot, he was getting super star treatment at every stop we made, he was the man that night. Then Rick told us to "hold on" he'd be right back. He was gone for 5-10 minutes when we thought we would go get him....Rick was at the dice table in KPP, right then we knew that Rick could handle it.....you will be missed my friend and prayers for his family.
