“ So sorry to hear of the loss of uncle Ronnie. He was a beloved friend of the family and we have many fond and funny memories of family summer trips to visit (and "run beer") to your home in Beaver Dam. It was the first time I had ever seen a picnic table used indoors (such a great idea!). He will be missed but I am sure will keep things lively in Heaven! Much love to you all! AnnMarie Effinger Alderman and family (John and Betty Effinger's oldest daughter)

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of Ronald F. Clothier.

“ For those that didn't know dad, he never sat down at a restaurant without requesting the waiter or waitress to give him the free meal, he never knew anyone that didn't still have the first dollar they ever made, everyone drove a rolls can hardly, and I worked at Oak Island. He was a practical joker and enjoyed being the receiver as much as the one initialing the jokes. Even in his very last days, he was playing his jokes.

Such a simple man that loved life and tried to speak no evil of anyone, he thrived on people's joys, not anyone's heartaches. Even in his last days he apologized for his illness, knowing but never saying his death would bring much sorrow.

Naturally, we are all sad at the loss of dad but as dad would have done, we search out the positive... dad is no longer in pain, he can finally relax and he held on to life long enough to ensure he could tell family goodbye. What a remarkable man!
